

Policy for Out sourcing

We normally do not outsource any function which can be reasonably executed in house. However, there are certain special services which cannot be performed in-house, such as lawyers assistance, auditors service, courier services , printing of stationery etc. Decision of outsourcing such services is taken by the board of directors of the company and conveyed to the employees.

We ensure to select such normal outsourcing based on their past track record and cost effectiveness and ensure that no related parties of any employee / directors or their relatives are assigned such services and the utmost care is taken to ensure all such service providers ensure the required professional ethics are being carried out in their normal functioning
